

To Know God and to Make God Known by Ken Medema

To know God and to make God known.
We are a family where no one is alone.
Renewed by love, and changed by grace
To do God's will in ev'ry place.
To know God and to make God known.

Can you hear? The bells are ringing!
Do you hear the children singing?
Here is comfort, here is caring,
Here is dreaming, here is daring.
Jesus shines in all those faces, Jesus speaks in all these voices.
Come and see what God has done here in this holy place.

To know God and to make God known.
We are a family where no one is alone.
Renewed by love, and changed by grace
To do God's will in ev'ry place.
To know God and to make God known.

Far beyond the walls around us,
Into service love has bound us.
Love for friends and love for strangers,
Love for people facing danger.
In this city God has placed us.
With God's Spirit Christ has graced us.
Come and see what God has done here in this holy place.

To know God and to make God known.
We are a family where no one is alone.
Renewed by love, and changed by grace
To do God's will in ev'ry place.
To know God and to make God known.

Here is light in life's confusion.
Here is truth in life's illusion.
Here is hope where dreams are broken.
Words of love and peace are spoken.
Open hands and sweet embracing
Sadness with God's joy replacing.
Come and see what God has done here in this holy place.

To know God and to make God known.
We are a family where no one is alone.
Renewed by love, and changed by grace
To do God's will in ev'ry place.
To know God and to make God known.
Renewed by love, and changed by grace
To do God's will in ev'ry place.
To know God and to make God known.
