The beauty the sunrise
the dimming of the day
a tiny of grain of sand that's kissed by a crashing tidal wave.
God, it's good.
Oh God, it's good.

The depth of desert canyon a stand of shady birch majestic snow capped mountains all creation is your church!
God, it's good.
Oh God, it's good.

All things bright and beautiful
the dreams of God unfurled
Ours to hold
and ours to guard
this big, bright beautiful world...

The climbing honeysuckle
a busy bumblebee
the fruit that fills the orchard seeds of possibility
God, it's good.
Oh God, it's good.

All things bright and beautiful
the dreams of God unfurled
Ours to hold
and ours to guard
this big, bright beautiful world...
