

One Brick at a Time

We lay one brick at a time.
We take one step at a time.
A revolution of the heart
Building a new world one brick at a time.

We throw one stone in the pond.
Its rings go far beyond
'til all God's creatures are circled in
Building a new world one brick at a time.

The old world falls apart
To make way for the new.
Don't be afraid and don't lose heart.
Love is breaking through.

We mix our dreams and our tears
To make the mortar strong.
Binding together earth, sky and song,
Building a new world one brick at a time.

We hear the cries of the earth.
We feel the pain of the poor.
We challenge the systems of greed and war,
Building a new world one brick at a time.

The old world falls apart
To make way for the new.
Don't be afraid and don't lose heart.
Love is breaking through.

What we do might seem small
And we may never know.
The smallest things when done with love
Multiply and grow one brick at a time.

The old world falls apart
To make way for the new.
Don't be afraid and don't lose heart.
Love is breaking through. Oh, love is breaking through.

We lay one brick at a time.
We take one step at a time.
A revolution of the heart
Building a new world one brick at a time,
One brick at a time.
