Be Thou My Vision-Give Me Eyes To See

Words attributed to Dallan Forgaill, 8th Century and HeatherlynMusic
Music SLANE of Irish Folk Origin
Chorus from HeatherlynMusic.com

Verse 1

G            Em        C            G
Be Thou my vision O Lord of my heart
D                            C            D
Naught be all else to me, save Thou art
Em            C            G            C D
Thou my best thought, by day or by night
G            Em            C            G        Em    C        Dsus
Waking or sleeping, Thy presence my light.

Chorus

          C                            G
Give me eyes to see with your love
          C                            G
Let my heart believe your touch
          Em        C            D        G
May my mind perceive your glorious dreams
          Em            C            D        G        Em    C        Dsus
And my life with you, make a beautiful legacy.

Verse 2

G            Em            C            G
Be Thou my wisdom, and Thou my true word
D                            C            D
Abiding in grace, your impeccable work
Em            C            G            C D
Bearing the burden of Freedom's call
G            Em            C            G        Em    C        Dsus
Unresting until there is Justice for all.

Chorus

          C                            G
Give me eyes to see with your love
          C                            G
Let my heart believe your touch
          Em        C            D        G
May my mind perceive your glorious dreams
          Em            C            D        G        Em    C        Dsus
And my life with you, make a beautiful legacy
