E7

Greed can turn a garden into a desert

E7

Greed can turn a profession into a crime

A

Greed can turn a leader into a monster

E7

Greed will drown us all if we give it time.

B7            A7            B7            A7            E7

But only love, only love, only love can heal what's broken.

Hate can turn this nation into a war zone.

Hate can make a lie a certitude

Hate can turn religion into a weapon Hate

can turn this family into a feud

But only love, only love, only love can heal what's broken.

Fear can take possession just like a demon, (Like

a) puppet, make you freeze or fight or run

Fear can turn a hero into a villain

(Make you) do things that you never would have done

But only love, only love, only love can heal what's broken.

Love is patient, kind, and full of goodness

Love forgives and hopes and never fails.

Love will turn an enemy into a neighbor

(Over) greed and hate and fear, love prevails.

Yes, only love, only love, only love can heal what's broken.

God is love, God is love (repeat)

Only love can heal what's broken.
