Intro/Outro: C#m7 – B/D# - E - E(repeat 4 times)

C#m7 B/D# – E

Something is trying to be born.

C#m7 B/D# – E

Something is straining to take root.

C#m7 B/D# – E

Something is striving to break free.

A G#m7 Edim/G F#m7 E Esus4 E

We can let it be.

Something is burning to be said
Something is yearning to be done
Something is turning gold and red
We can let it come.

A B A B

Open ears and eyes, open arms and hands

A B A G#m F#m E
Open hearts and minds, it will come.

Do not push or rush, do not fight or strive

Just have faith and hope, it will come alive.

Something is beginning to sing

Something is daring to try

Something is spreading fragile wings

We can let it fly

Open ears and eyes, open arms and hands

Open hearts and minds, it will come.

Do not push or rush, do not fight or strive

Just have faith and hope, it will come alive.

Something is starting to catch fire

Something is melting like snow.
Something is whispering of hope.
We can let it grow.

Open ears and eyes, open arms and hands
Open hearts and minds, it will come.
Do not push or rush, do not fight or strive
Just have faith and hope, it will come alive.
