

CONVERGENCE MUSIC PROJECT

MUSIC FOR A JUST AND GENEROUS CHRISTIANITY

Amahoro

*Words and Music by Tracy Howe Wispelwey
Copyright 2011, The Restoration Project. All Rights Reserved.*

“Amahoro” is a word from the Kirundi language, spoken in Burundi as well as adjacent parts of Tanzania, Uganda and the D.R. Congo. It is a common greeting meaning “peace” and is used in this song as a prayer and blessing that could be translated, “Let peace flow between us!”

Chorus: Amahoro, Amahoro (repeated several times)

Verse 1: Love, love, love show us the way.. (repeat)

Chorus

Verse 2: Peace, peace, peace show us the way...

Chorus

Verse 3: Hope, hope, hope show us the way...

Chorus