Find Our Way to Love

Words by Lenora Rand; Music by Gary Rand and Hannah Rand

When I hurt you, I hurt me.
When I push you, I push me.
When I curse you, I curse me.
I weep with you as you weep with me.

When I starve you, I starve me.
When I bomb you, I bomb me.
When I kill you, I kill me.
I die with you as you die with me.

There is no "other."

There's only us on this trembling, tender earth.

And all of heaven is here with us when we find our way to love.

When we find our way to love.

When I hate you, I hate me.
When I lose you, I lose me.
When I find you, I find me.
I live with you as you live with me.

Chorus

God so loves the world.
God so loves the world.
God so loves ev'ryone of us
So we can find our way to love.
So we can find our way to love.
