First things first: people got to know this! First things first: now we're gonna show this!
Listen up! There is something that we wanna say.
Say it loud, say it soft say it ev'ry way.
In the city, in the country, make it clear and plain.
Say it once, say it twice, say it once again:

One, two, three! God knows us! One, two, three! God loves us!
Make a call, send an email, send a text, Instagram, Facebook, Twitter, all the rest.
Speak it out now in every language you can find.
Speak it out now to every single heart and mind:
One, two, three! God knows us! One, two, three! God loves us!

God knows ev'ry hair that's on our heads. God knows ev'rything we've ever said.
God knows ev'rything we've ever done. God knows us and loves us ev'ryone!
One, two, three! God loves us!
God knows ev'ry tear we've ever cried. God knows ev'rything we've ever tried.
God knows us and wants us to be friends. God loves with a love than never ends!

One, two, three! God loves us!
God who loves us, God who knows us, make Your Spirit fill each heart.
Teach us how to love each other. Teach us how to make a start.
We can love because You love us. We can care because You care.
We can face each day and night because we know Your love is there.

One, two, three! God knows us! One, two, three! God loves us!
