Taste and see, taste and see
The Lord is good.

To those who search, to those who mourn,
To those who seek a place to lay the burdens borne
Come in and rest, come be made whole,
Come in and feast among the gifts of love with welcome to us all.

Chorus

For those who trust, for those who doubt,
For those whose difference others use to cast them out,
The table's set, the circle's wide
The banquet doors are open, welcoming everyone inside.

Chorus

Bridge: Now break the bread, and join the body
 See kindred fed, your hands extending
 Take the cup, and share salvation
 Pass the peace to every neighbor and nation!
